Union Public Schools, Independent District #9, is a premiere Oklahoma school district, known for its excellence, pride and tradition. Its reputation is based on visionary curriculum, superb faculty and staff, award-winning fine arts programs, championship athletic and academic teams, outstanding facilities and a community that supports the school system. On May 17, 1954, the U.S Supreme Court ruled that racial segregation of public schools was unconstitutional in the United States. That ruling would focus the spotlight of national attention in the United States upon the Arkansas National Guard and the integration of Central High School. The Arkansas National Guard was drawn into the conflict when Governor Orval Faubus ordered them to "Preserve ... The Little Rock Nine was a group of nine African American students enrolled in Little Rock Central High School in 1957. Their enrollment was followed by the Little Rock Crisis, in which the students were initially prevented from entering the racially segregated school by Orval Faubus, the Governor of Arkansas. They then attended after the intervention of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Honors. Fay Jones School of Architecture and Design Honors Program.
